Las Vegas, NV (May 18, 2009) - Champagne, frozen grapes, ice towels, poolside cabana massages and Evian® water mistings. The Palazzo Las Vegas brings the opulence of the French Riviera to the Las Vegas Strip with the opening of AZURE. Embodying sophistication at its finest, AZURE is a fresh and exciting pool concept created for the guest who enjoys the finer things in life. Contemporary and stylish décor with lush greenery, plush daybeds, seasonal floral and tranquility will surround guests while they take pleasure in viewing elegant fashion shows, being pampered by “amenity butlers and butlerettes” and savoring the culinary offerings of celebrity chef Wolfgang Puck.

“AZURE combines the sophistication of the Cote d’Azur, the heat of Las Vegas and the magnificence of The Palazzo into one amazing space,” said Rob Goldstein, president and COO of The Palazzo and The Venetian. “While lounging poolside or in a cabana at AZURE, visitors will be able to experience The Palazzo’s exceptional service and luxurious amenities, such as Canyon Ranch SpaClub®, Wolfgang Puck’s cuisine and hottest fashions from Barneys New York and Diane von Furstenberg.”

Culinary offerings at AZURE will be just as exclusive with appetizing fare by celebrity chef Wolfgang Puck. Adding to the fine line-up of amenities, AZURE will present ABSOLUT® Vodka Saturdays, exclusive daytime pool events consisting of stylish entertainment, beautiful models, celebrity guests, acoustic performances, live DJ’s and ABSOLUT Vodka signature cocktails, such as the Spiked Bellini.

High-style fashion shows featuring apparel and accessories from the likes of Barneys New York, Diane von Furstenberg, Tory Burch and other luxury retailers of The Shoppes at The Palazzo will take place twice a day each Saturday at AZURE. Canyon Ranch SpaClub® will also have an exclusive menu of relaxing signature spa services, including complimentary SPF lotion application, available to guests during pool hours.
