Molly Sims and The Palazzo Las Vegas Host Exclusive Luncheon at Barneys New York

Launching the new arrival of Chelsea Passage home collection

Las Vegas, NV (October 2, 2008) – Actress and model, Molly Sims, hosted an intimate luncheon earlier today at The Palazzo Las Vegas to celebrate the arrival of Chelsea Passage, Barneys New York's area for gorgeous gifts for the home. Guests of the event were treated to a private showing of Chelsea Passage and enjoyed a delicious meal of gourmet spa cuisine provided by Canyon Ranch Grill.

Located on the third floor within Barneys New York's luxury emporium in Las Vegas, Chelsea Passage features home and gift collections referencing art, culture and design. The Chelsea Passage Las Vegas mix includes the stunning shagreen, bronze and shell collections of Parisian designers R&Y Augousti, the glamorous fur pillows and throws of Adrienne Landau as well as the happy, chic ceramics of Jonathan Adler. Other important collections are the innovative designs of Kartell, Old World inspired curiosities of D.L. & Co. by Douglas Little and the expert leather work of Graphic Image. True to the history of Chelsea Passage, glass from Caleb Siemon, John Pomp and Tracy Glover and the dream-like accessories of Fornasetti showcase the work of true artists.

Molly Sims took pleasure in browsing the unique and eclectic furnishings for interior decorating ideas to incorporate into her new home in Los Angeles. With an eye for design, Sims picked up items to customize her savvy, comfortable living space.

“I truly have a passion for decorating and what better place to go for ideas than The Palazzo with its sophisticated, chic design and fabulous shopping,” said model and actress Molly Sims. “Not only does The Palazzo have elite shopping like Barneys New York, but it is the perfect place for a relaxing escape from reality and work where you can get a massage, indulge at the finest restaurants, and then collapse in your enormous suite. Everything is conveniently located here at The Palazzo and you don’t have to leave this sanctuary!”

While at The Palazzo, Sims relaxed in a luxurious and spacious Lago suite, was pampered at the world renowned Canyon Ranch SpaClub and dined at the ultra-chic dining and nightlife venue, LAVO. In addition, Sims strolled the 450,000-square-foot retail center for the latest fall trends at some of the most elegant and fashion-forward retail offerings on The Strip. The Shoppes at The Palazzo is becoming a haven for the trend-setting fashion elite including celebrities and guests alike.
