LAS VEGAS – The “Undisputed Bad Boy of Comedy,” Andrew Dice Clay, is “up close and in your face” as the first entertainer to perform at the Sugarcane Live!, an exciting new experience at Sugarcane at The Shoppes at The Palazzo, beginning March 25th and continuing through April 5th.

Tickets priced at $65, not including applicable service charges and taxes, are on sale now. Tickets can be purchased by calling 1-866-641-SHOW or 702-414-9000, online at palazzolasvegas.com or in person at any Venetian or Palazzo Box Office.

Showtimes are 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday; 10:00 p.m Friday March 27 and Saturday March 28 and 10:30 p.m. on Friday April 3 and Saturday April 4th and 8:00pm Sunday April 5th.

Clay arrives at Sugarcane Live! following his recent appearances on the hit T.V. series “Celebrity Apprentice” with Donald Trump and the HBO series “Down and Dirty.” The comic’s outrageous comedy continues to be electric, politically incorrect, macho and shocking.

His rise to fame was meteoric: sold-out arenas, platinum albums and starring roles in films and TV specials showcase the talented performer who is referred to “The Rocky of Comedy” as he delivers his “take-no-prisoners” act that certainly isn’t for the “faint-of-heart.”

Adam Steck, CEO of SPI Entertainment, Inc. and producer of several hit shows including Thunder From Down Under and Louie Anderson, is producing Clay’s show.
