About IMPERIA Vodka

Distilled and bottled in St. Petersburg, IMPERIA's premium caliber is founded in the perfect marriage of both Russia's fabled heritage and its 21st century dynamism. IMPERIA starts with the highest grade of winter wheat grains harvested from the Black Steppes of Russia, blended with soft glacial waters from Russia's frozen north, and then meticulously distilled eight times, four times above the industry average luxury grade spirit. The liquid is filtered twice through charcoal and twice through charged quartz crystals from the Ural Mountains to produce a vodka of exceptional purity with a clean, velvety smooth taste.
