The Palazzo Unveils An Enchanting Entertainment Experience

The Living Garden breaks the mold with complimentary daily performances at The Palazzo

Las Vegas, NV (January 19, 2009) – The Palazzo captures audiences with The Living Garden, a unique entertainment experience. Combining the beauty of nature, classical music and graceful choreography, the awe-inspiring daily performances at The Palazzo are a must-see attraction for visitors and guests alike.

Featuring three statue-like female performers adorned with elaborate make-up and incredible costumes, the entertainment experience begins with a procession to the base of the cascading waterfall inside The Palazzo, where the elegant transformation from statue to living fountain evolves. Observe the characters perform in the waterfall fountain, moving in a carefully choreographed dance of life, drama and true beauty. Delicate jets of water appear from their fingertips as a shimmering halo cascades from the crowns of their heads. Following the expressive display which lasts the course of three pieces of beautiful music, the performers exit the waterfall and pose for photographs with the audience. They then proceed in a procession to the second floor and enter The Shoppes at The Palazzo, where they are greeted by two living vine characters. These stunning, mysterious female vines stand over nine feet tall, as they interact with shoppers and guests, posing for photos, teasing the crowd and moving with acrobatic grace and flexibility. The vines journey throughout The Shoppes at The Palazzo in a playful routine of duality and intrigue.

As seen before at botanical gardens, zoos, theme parks, as well as prestigious celebrations including The Grammy Awards show, The Living Garden adds a fantasy-like aura to the surroundings. Eye-catching and breath-taking, The Living Garden brings a one-of-a-kind entertainment concept to the sophisticated and luxurious ambiance of The Palazzo.

The Living Garden complimentary performance schedule is daily, Sunday – Saturday at 12:00pm, 1:30pm, 3:00pm, 4:30pm, 6:00pm beginning at the cascading waterfall at The Palazzo and continuing to the second level of The Shoppes of The Palazzo near Chloe and Piazza Sempione.
